NINETEEN HUNDRED
SEVENTY~THREE
VOLUME SIXTEEN

*We Dedicate
the 1973 Yearbook to Mr.
Dale Terwilliger*

"It's hard to be humble when you are as great as I am." Of course these words could only come from a "handsome, debonair, charming, kind, generous, and such a wonderful personality" as our chemistry teacher, Mr. Dale Terwilliger. His lectures are spiced with expressions such as "to make the cheese more binding" and "sharp as a cracker and twice as crummy."

Mr. Terwilliger is a great teacher in our science department and our Junior Varsity basketball coach. At many games Mr. Terwilliger throws the towel down after wiping his forehead, but he never throws the towel in. "It's not the size of the dog in the fight, it's the size of the fight in the dog."

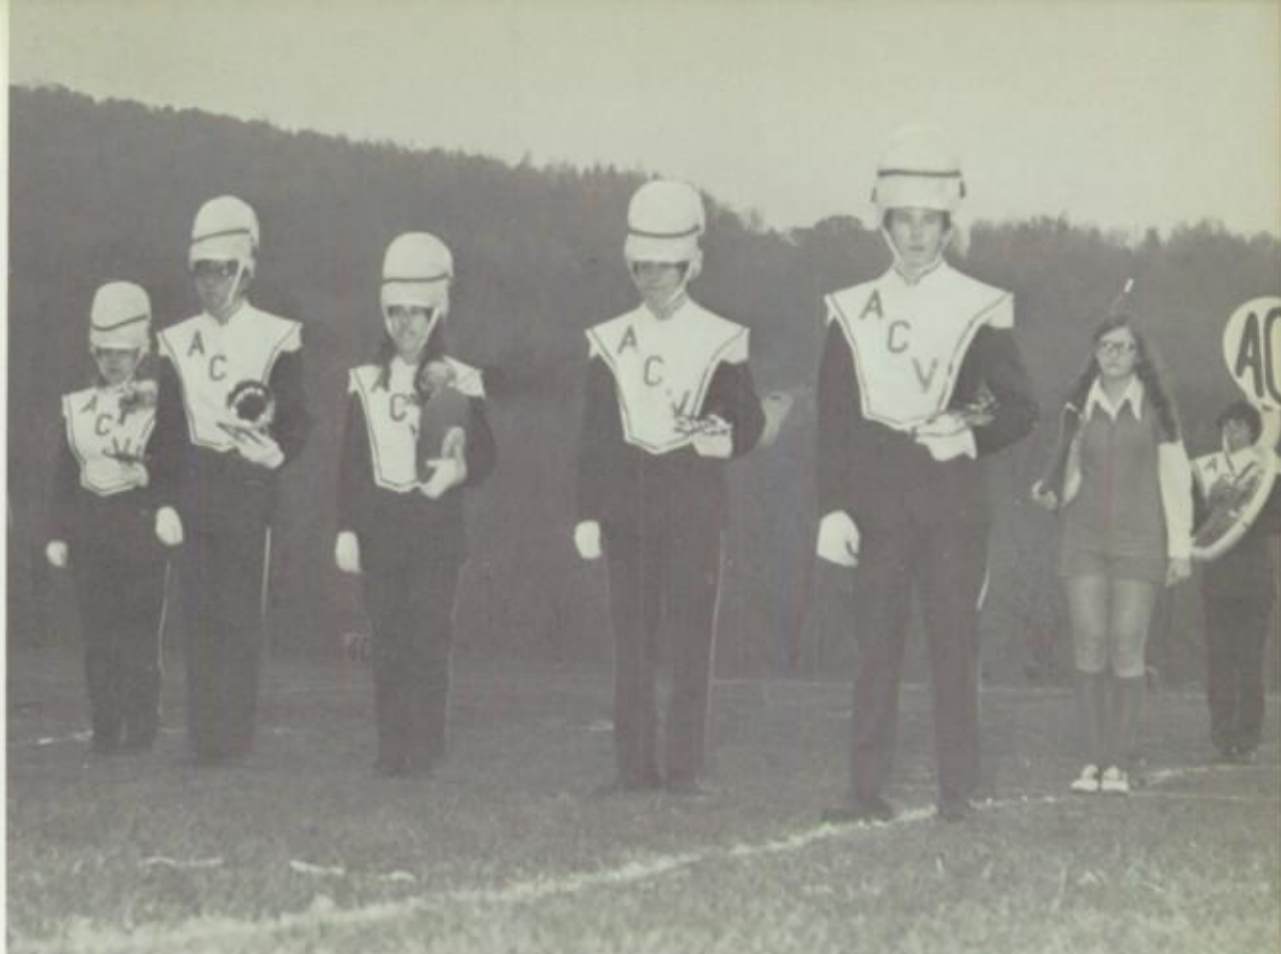

This describes our Mr. Terwilliger.

I am an individual, but a part of the human race.
I hold my own against all, but I cannot live without others.
The world may not know it; but I
am here.
I will show myself soon.
I live.

In Memoriam

Mr. Charles Tritle

You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here,
Think of him still, as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away.

Where did it go?

To what purpose did we devote three years of high school?

More than a diploma; more than college admission; more than a job.

A special period of growth - begun only to continue to greater depth, more lucid perception.

A special period to inspire dreams, open closets, shout out, stand on our heads.

Where did it go?

In retrospect - visions of plans turned success, failures into knowledge, growth for progress.

Reflect.

You'll see.

An abstract line drawing in black ink on a light background. A large, simple circle is positioned in the upper left quadrant. From the left side of the circle, several long, flowing, and somewhat parallel lines extend diagonally across the page towards the bottom right. These lines have a slightly wavy, organic quality. There are also a few shorter, more delicate lines branching off from the main flow. The overall composition is minimalist and evocative.

A line drawing of a wooden well. The well is constructed from several vertical wooden planks. A curved wooden beam, likely a pulley, is attached to the side of the well. A bucket is hanging from the pulley. The background shows a landscape with rolling hills and a small body of water in the distance.

I see the world all around me.

I create images of things
I want to be.

Only One Being knows the answer.

He breathes it into me the moment I am born.

I will be what I am.

I cannot be something I am not.

I attain for myself goals
I have set.

Little in Life can I grasp without knowing its true
meaning.

God sets for me the
meaning.

He gives me my life here.

When I die, He gives me a place for my rest.

One day I will grasp
life's true meaning.

I will finally see myself
for what I am.

Although God gave me the
answer the day I was born,

I won't understand until the day I die.
